

Sally is a British children's book writer who moved to the States in 1989 "just for a year or two". She's still here. Born in Kampala, Uganda, raised in East, and West Africa and at a boarding school in the New Forest, England—the first book Sally ever remembers reading all the way through was The Complete Nonsense by Edward Lear.

Things have not been the same since.

Sally is a New York Times bestselling children's book writer. Her books include the critically acclaimed, How To Be A Baby, By Me, the Big Sister, the ECPA Devotional book of the year, Thoughts to Make Your Heart Sing, and the Gold Book Award winning, The Jesus Storybook Bible which has sold over 1.8 million copies since its publication in 2007 and been translated into over 25 languages.

Sally works with various publishers and acclaimed children's book illustrators. She recently performed in New York City with Amy Grant and Ashley Cleveland in Story In The Round, an evening of story and songs.

Sally lives in Manhattan and enjoys dividing her time between the front half of her apartment and the back.
