

Sally Lloyd-Jones

books you can trust for the children you love

OFFICIAL BIO | 2019

Sally is a New York Times bestselling writer and frequent performer of her work. She has written over 25 books, spanning the Christian and general markets. Her work has been critically acclaimed by the Wall Street Journal and the New York Times. Her books (which are written for children, but lots of adults are reading) include:

—How to be a Baby, a New York Times Notable Book of the Year – “adorable, original, well-illustrated, and fabulous.”

—The Jesus Storybook Bible, winner of the Platinum Book Award, with over 3 million copies sold and translated into 44 languages and counting.

—Thoughts To Make Your Heart Sing, winner of the Association of Christian Publisher’s Book of the Year Award in the adult inspiration category.

Sally recently performed her stories and poems in a twelve-city tour with Amy Grant and Ellie Holcombe. She has appeared at Carnegie Hall with The Gettys in their Christmas Show and with Andrew Peterson at The Ryman.

Sally was born in Kampala, Uganda, raised in East and West Africa and at a boarding school in the New Forest, England, studied at the Sorbonne, and now lives in NYC.

Her newest titles include two new books published last year: Goldfish on Vacation, and Loved, a paraphrase of The Lord’s Prayer.

Coming in 2019: Hats Off to Mr. Pockles!

She can be found at sallylloyd-jones.com