

Even the tiniest speck of faith — the little bit you have — so-small-it's-hardly-even-there-faith — is enough.
Enough for you to do whatever Jesus has asked you to do.
Because it's not about us and how much faith we have.
It's about him and how faithful he is!